

Dear Parent / Caregiver,

In order to complete the application process to obtain a place in the Year 7 AVID Elective Program for 2022, the following agreement will need to be signed, dated and returned to Baldivis Secondary College by close of business Friday the 10th of December.

AVID Elective Agreement

Parent

I hereby agree to:

- Support my child to maintain an attendance rate above 90% and bring relevant learning resources including stationary and interactive notebooks.
- Purchase a laptop for my child (Microsoft Office installed) and encourage him/her to bring it to school everyday.
- Encourage my child to behave at a high standard, follow teacher instructions and treat all members of the college with respect.
- Support my child to review their notes (from all classes) at the end of each day, week and month in accordance with the 24/7/30 study technique.
- Contact either the classroom teacher, Associate Principal or Principal if I have any questions or concerns relating to the education of my child in the AVID Elective Program.

Student

I hereby agree to:

- Attend school for over 90% of the time throughout the year.
- Arrive to all classes on time with all resources needed for the class.
- Try my best to up hold a high standard of behaviour in all classes at BSC, especially in the AVID Elective class.
- To review my notes (from all classes) at the end of every day, week and month in accordance with the 24/7/30 study technique.
- Show respect to my classmates and teachers through my words and actions.
- Apply effort to overcome any difficulties that I face inside and outside of the classroom.
- Ask for help if I don't understand what is required of me or if I require any support.

We understand that if the high standards mentioned above are not maintained, that this place offered in the AVID Elective program may be rescinded under the judgement made by the classroom teacher, Associate Principal and Principal.
